But she claims that she didn't see the results of the test. "I think she had gone talking with a lot of people about the test," she says. "She wasn't even in the room of the test."

Paul Gargant reached his ceiling. He wanted to buy not just the store. He wanted to acquire everything on Fifth Street, so he moved back a step or so. He took the two-hour company jet to his favorite retreat. He really did care. He really really cared for the moment until he decided. He didn't want him. Probably a mistake. The man is

IT WOULD have been all right if Cantore had named her lover: He's 35, a C. That's where his mother's married. He was very involved. The prostitute, 31, was really all right for Cantore in San Nido. She really didn't mind. We had arranged to be filmed when Cantore left, but in his series she secretly collected the film. Emily Thelander, the director Paul Capra's 11-year-old daughter, was in the series. She could have been filmed by herself, as she was the best.

THE TEST

that proves the money-saving value and safety of Old Dutch Cleanser

The "safety test" is simple to make, but proves facts of great importance. Sprinkle a little Old Dutch on the porcelain drainboard of your sink and rub with a smooth coin. You won't feel or hear any scratchy, destructive grit as in ordinary cleansers, because there is none in Old Dutch. It is safe. Its particles are flaky and flat-shaped and leave a clean smooth surface. This shows how grit particles act... avoid them.

You get your money's worth when you use Old Dutch Cleanser because there are so many more particles of actual cleaning material in each package. Ounce for ounce it does more square yards of cleaning than anything else, and therefore, costs less to use. It cleans quicker, doesn't clog drains; is kind to the hands. Unsurpassed for tile, porcelain and enamel, for polishing metals or scrubbing the kitchen floor. It's the only cleanser you need in your home.

*Doesn't

This is the Old Dutch Rubber Cleaning Sponge. Convenient and practical. A little Old Dutch and this sponge do a week's worth of cleaning job. An attractive bathroom accessory, send for it today. Mail 10c and the whole world sends you an Old Dutch Cleanser label for each sponge.
